SIXTH EDITION, ELEVENTH THOUSAND

Estadecios will do us a great favor by owners, especially English, in their department, as soon as possible, and any other information in their power. The present edition will comprise 600 pages, besides maps, at price $4 currency.

M. G. & E. T. MULLHALL

When you have your passport taken you naturally want a good note to ensure that you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.

If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.

A sensible person will beware of such charges and every one takes to ensure the case at the "Gran Fotografica Platense" where customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by cheapness re-

Catalina, July 15.

The eruption is to-day more forma-ble than ever. The main center is extending in size and the showers of stones and masses of molten matter are continually increasing in volume, some of the projectiles being carried to a height of about a thousand feet. Meanwhile, two fresh cones, 800 feet in height, have been formed, and from these streams of lava are constantly flowing in the direction of Nicolosi, from which there are now only about two miles distant. No immediate danger, however, threatens the inhabitants of the village, but the destruction caused to the surrounding country goes on increasing.

Berlin, Friday.

The apoplexy of the Jewish butcher Bushoff of Xanten, who was accused of having murdered a boy in order to obtain his blood for ritual purposes, was generally expected, the trial, which lasted ten days, not having brought to light the least evidence of his guilt. The case excited quite unusual interest, for the Anti-Jewish party had determined to make capital out of it. A year ago Bushoff was twice arrested and twice released, because the judge had ruled in favor of his innocence. If the trial had not taken place at all, the Anti-Semites would have alleged, as they did before, that all concerned were imprisoned by the Jews, and even now they resort to insinuations of justice and especially the expert witnesses who were called. The Anti-Semites tried to prove that the murder was performed by a Jewish butcher, because no blood was found in the body, a sign that it had been taken for ritual purposes. During the trial, however, it turned out that those who expressed this opinion had not even seen the body, and that the wound showed no signs of having been made with any such intent. Moreover, the accused was able to give an accurate account of how he spent every quarter of an hour of the day on which the murder was committed.

The Yiddish Zeitung is quite right in saying, "One's soul is filled with horror and sorrow when one glances at the history of the Xanten murder trial, and all its attendant circumstances.

Stupid hatred of the Jews, reckless understanding and a love estimate of the sacred of the oath, have celebrated an orgue which in its abominations can only be matched by the witch and heretic trials of past times." A public subscription opened up for the Xanten murder trials, and in the act of blowing up railroad tracks has been imprisoned for several months and whose property was completely demolished by the mob at Xanten.
